Clonmel Chamber Welcomes Visitors to the National Coursing Festival

Clonmel Chamber of Commerce President Tina Mulhearn has sent the best wishes of the organisation to the National Coursing Festival that celebrates its 85th year in Clonmel next week.

“From a business perspective the festival is a much welcomed boost to the town. Estimates put the value of the coursing festival to Clonmel at over €10 million per annum” she said. Furthermore the influx of visitors to the town adds to the overall atmosphere,” she added.

Clonmel Chamber members are always delighted to welcome visitors to the town and the National Coursing Festival is a welcome boost every year” said the President of the Chamber.
